

Puzzle Pattern Contest

Puzzle 1

Spell I t

Fill in each row of boxes with the answer to the clue. One letter has been placed in each word to get you started. When the boxes are filled, the highlighted columns will spell out a three-word phrase. It probably won't mean much to you just yet, but don't worry. Submit your answer for a chance to win the Grand Prize, and hang onto it for use again in Puzzle 5.

1.	S	P	I	N	O	F	F
2.				S	T	I	T	C	H
3.	A	R	S	E	N	A	L
4.			P	L	A	N	E	T	S
5.		P	E	L	I	C	A	N
6.			L	E	G	E	N	D
7.	E	A	G	L	E

1. What Laverne & Shirley was to Happy Days.
2. Cross, tent, or lazy daisy
3. Stash of fabric, or perhaps ammunition
4. Subject of Funk & Weber Designs pattern THE NEIGHBORHOOD
5. Bird whose beak holds more than his belly can
6. A myth or story
7. Subject of Funk & Weber Designs K103 and one-twelfth of PORTRAITS OF THE WILD LIFE

To submit your entry, send an e-mail to mail@funkandweber.com with PATTERN PUZZLE CONTEST in the subject line and the phrase in the highlighted columns in the body of the letter. Really, it's that easy. Of course, visit the blog tomorrow for more fun and another chance to win.

Puzzle 2

Puzzles Are The Spice of Life

Fill the empty spaces with one of these letters—A C E F I L N P S—so that every row, column, and 3x3 square contains each letter. Write the highlighted letters (in order from left to right, beginning at the top) on the spaces to the right to reveal a two-word phrase. It will make about as much sense as yesterday's three-word phrase, but don't let that bother you. Submit your answer for a chance to win the Grand Prize, and hang onto it for use again in Puzzle 5.

Puzzle B lanks

Match the puzzle pieces to the numbered spaces in the block; then write the letter from the piece on the space with the same number. The answer will make as much sense as previous contest answers, but you figured as much, right? Submit your answer for a chance to win the Grand Prize, and hang onto it for use again in Puzzle 5.

Puzzle 4

Tug-o-War

Place a word on the spaces between the two given words on a line. The words you are looking for are being pulled in two directions. When added to the end of the first word or the beginning of the second word, two new words are formed.

Read down the highlighted letters to reveal today's puzzle answer. Submit your answer for a chance to win the Grand Prize, and hang onto it for use again in Puzzle 5. No, it won't make any more sense than the others. Yes, it'll come in handy tomorrow.

Grand Slam

A nagram

Okay, here it is. Time to slam this contest, and the new puzzle pattern, home. I've been telling you all week that you'll use the crazy answers from the first four puzzles in this, the final puzzle. Well, the first four puzzle answers are all anagrams of the pattern title. Your job now is to figure out the title of the pattern, which reveals something about the subject of the pattern. So dig out your answers from earlier puzzles and rearrange the letters.

Ready? Set? Anagram!

I SPELL FIANCE, FINE ALLSPICE, PELICAN'S LIFE, FINAL ECLIPSE

F _A_ _L_ _L_, _I_ _N_ _P_ _I_ _E_ _C_ _E_ _S_

To submit your entry, send an e-mail to mail@funkandweber.com with P A T T E R N P U Z Z L E C O N T E S T in the subject line and the pattern title in the body of the letter. Answers must be submitted before midnight (by 11:59 p.m. Alaska time), August 6th, 2008. That gives you a whole extra day to work out the answer. Winners (and a picture of the design) will be posted on the blog on August 7th, provided I can get online. I will be in the Bush again, with satellite internet that doesn't work when the weather is especially bad. The area is a rainforest, so we do get some lousy weather. Winners will also be notified by email. Prizes will be mailed on or around August 12th.
